NEW FRANKEN, WI— January 24, 2011. Dental Health Products, Inc. (DHPI) has partnered with Learn HealthSci to offer DHPI VIVA Learning™ to deliver CE programs through its company web site. This value-added service provides dentists and auxiliary staff with access to hundreds of live and on-demand classes, product tutorials, and webinars from many well known dental speakers. Now, earning CE credits through DHPI has never been easier—and best of all many are FREE.

To view the available classes go to www.dhpionline.com and select “Seminars, Webinars, VIVA Learning” under “Services.” You can use the VIVA CE Finder to search the entire library of classes by category and/or company. “This is a very effective and efficient way to deliver continuing education programs to dentists and staff. We are very pleased at the response we’ve received to date with DHPI VIVA Learning™” says Steve Desautel, Vice President Sales and Marketing.
